We may need to ask you for further information, requiring you to provide your date of birth, a taxpayer identification number and other information that will allow us to reasonably identify you. This could include requiring you to take steps to confirm ownership of your email address or verifying your information against third party databases or through other sources. We may also ask to see your driver’s license or other identifying documents at any time. Conotoxia reserves the right to close, suspend, or limit access to your Conotoxia Account and/or the Services in the event we are unable to obtain or verify this information.

We will let you know the exact amount of the fee before you submit your transfer request. You also will have 30 minutes from when you submit your transfer request to have that request cancelled.

Transfer Restrictions

Restriction	Daily	Monthly
Transfer Amount	$2,999	$6,000
Transfer Frequency	4 per day	11 per month

Currency Conversion and Exchange Rate

As part of our services, in processing a Transfer your funds may be converted into a Supported Currency for payment to a Recipient located in a Supported Country. A conversion fee will apply when we perform a currency conversion in connection with a Transfer. You can also find out more information about the fees we charge on the Pricing Page and below in the Fees section.

When you place a Transfer order, we will let you know the exchange rate as discussed in the section on Electronic Fund Transfer Act Remittance Transfer Rule. You understand and agree that the offered exchange rate is a specific offer from Conotoxia and may not be reflective of the exchange rate offered on currency markets at the time it is presented to you. You understand and agree that others may offer a more favorable exchange rate than offered by Conotoxia. You agree that you are responsible for comparing the exchange rate offered by Company with the exchange rates offered by others. You understand and agree that Conotoxia may make a profit from the exchange rate offered to you. In other words, the Conotoxia may offer you an exchange rate where your cost to exchange one currency for another is greater than the cost the Conotoxia incurs to exchange one currency to another in connection with your Transfer.

Fees

The fees for Transfers will be disclosed to you in a pre-payment disclosure when you place an order and prior to your confirming the Transfer. You may also view the fee structure on our Pricing Page. For clarity, the fees applicable to you on the Pricing Page form part of these Terms and Conditions and are subject to change.

You agree to pay the relevant fees using your chosen payment method. Our fees do not include any fees that your bank or the recipient's bank may charge. We will not process your payment order until we have received the applicable fee from you.

Electronic Fund Transfer Act Remittance Transfer Rule Requirements for International Fund Transfers

Conotoxia will provide you with certain disclosures regarding your cancellation and error resolution rights in accordance with the Electronic Fund Transfer Act's requirements for remittance transfers.

Conotoxia will provide you with two disclosures for each remittance transfer. The first disclosure – known as a “pre-payment disclosure” – is given to you before you pay for the Transfer. This disclosure lists the amount of money to be transferred, the exchange rate, certain fees and/or taxes collected by Conotoxia, and the amount of money expected to be delivered abroad, not including fees charged by the Recipient's institution or foreign taxes. The fact that you were provided with this pre-payment disclosure does not mean that you are obligated to complete the Transfer. If you decide to conduct the Transfer, you will be provided with a receipt when payment is made. This receipt repeats the information in the pre-payment disclosure as well as provides the date when the remittance will be paid, your error resolution and cancellation rights. The receipt will also provide contact information for Conotoxia, state regulators, and our federal regulator, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, in order to submit a complaint.

Your cancellation and error resolution rights are specifically addressed in the sections of these Terms and Conditions titled “Cancellation of a Transfer Order and Error Resolution”.

Methods of Payment

You may pay for a Transfer by ACH, debit card, or credit card. No other payment methods are accepted, including cash, mailed check, or electronic check. We also reserve the right to not permit a particular payment method generally or for a particular user. For legal, security, or other reasons, there may also be financial or other limits for particular payment methods.

ACH

When you pay for a Transfer by ACH, which Conotoxia will process as a debit, you represent that your details are correct, that you are authorized to access and transmit funds from your bank account, that your bank account is in good standing with the account-holding financial institution, and that you have the authority to initiate an electronic funds transfer in the amount at issue from your bank account. By requesting payment through ACH, you authorize us to initiate electronic credits and debits to your bank account through the ACH network.

Debit and Credit Card Payments

If you choose to upload money via debit or credit card, you will need to provide your card details, including your card number and cardholder name. When you choose to upload money via debit or credit card, you confirm the following: (i) that your card details are correct; (ii) that you are authorized to access and transmit funds from your card account; (iii) that your card account is in good standing with the account-holding financial institution; and (iv) that you have the authority to initiate a debit or credit card payment in the amount at issue to or from your card account. By requesting payment through a debit or credit card, you additionally authorize us to initiate credits and debits to your account through card payment networks in order to process a requested transaction, including any applicable fees and charges. When using your credit card as a payment method to transfer money, your credit card issuer may charge additional fees, treating the transaction as a cash advance. You should contact your issuing bank for any questions related to cash advance fees.

Reversals or Chargebacks

You promise that in connection with a payment you will not exercise any chargeback right for a reason for which we are not responsible, such as a dispute with a Recipient concerning their providing of goods and services to you and the amount required for providing such goods and services to you.

Taxes

You and your Recipient are responsible for any taxes which may be applicable to payments sent or received and that are owed directly by you or your recipient. It is your responsibility and that of your Recipient to collect, report and pay the correct tax to the appropriate tax authority.

Limits on Transfer

We may place limits on the amount of currency you may Transfer at any given time. We may limit the amount of your Transfer order consistent with our obligations under Applicable Law and at our discretion.

Delay in Transfer

We do not have any control over the time it may take for your or a Recipient's bank or payment provider to credit and make available funds to you or your Recipient once we make the funds available to you or the Recipient's bank or payment provider.

We may delay a withdrawal or Transfer, in certain situations, including if we need to confirm that the withdrawal has been authorized by you. The completion time of your Transfer (i.e., the date on which funds will be available to the recipient) is notified to you on your receipt when you complete your Transfer order.

Cancellation of a Transfer Order

You have the right to cancel a Transfer and obtain a full refund of all funds, including any fees and/or taxes paid in connection with that order if you contact us and request cancellation of the Transfer through the cancellation button provided on our website or mobile app, within thirty (30) minutes of making a Transfer order.

If your cancellation request is made within thirty (30) minutes of a Transfer order, we will issue a refund including any fees within three (3) business days of your request as long as the funds have not yet been deposited into the recipient's bank account prior to our receipt of your refund request and enough information for Conotoxia to identify you and the relevant Transfer. You may not cancel an order, under any circumstances, once the funds have been deposited into the Recipient's account.

When you contact us, through any of the methods listed above, please provide us with sufficient information to help us identify the transfer order that you wish to cancel. This generally includes: (i) your name, address and telephone number; (ii) the name of the beneficiary receiving the funds; (iii) the dollar amount of the transfer; and (iv) the intended destination location.

Receipts and Transaction History

You may view your Conotoxia transaction history and receipts including related fees and exchange rates, if applicable, here. Your receipts will be available for a period of at least five (5) years.

We have assigned a transaction ID number to each Transfer; you should quote this transaction ID number when communicating with us about a particular Transfer.

Abandoned Funds (Escheatment)

To the extent Conotoxia has possession of undeliverable funds from you and is unable to return them to you for two (2) or more years as provided by Applicable Law, Conotoxia will send such funds to your state of residence. Conotoxia will determine your state of residence based on the state listed in the primary address for your Conotoxia Account. If your address is unknown, any funds due to you will be remitted to the State of Delaware, which may then, pursuant to Applicable Law, escheat such funds, meaning they become the property of the State, if the funds go unclaimed for two (2) years. Once funds have been escheated to the appropriate state authority, Conotoxia no longer holds those funds and you should contact the applicable state's unclaimed property administrator directly to claim such funds.
